Dear Ms. Manager:

I read the ad for the position of Wonder Woman as advertised in the weekend edition of the Times Colonist.

I have attached a resume to this cover letter. In it you will find documentation that details my education and work experience, performing many of the tasks you've outlined in your advertisement. For example, not only can I look entirely different just by removing my headband and leotard, but I can:

- run faster than a speeding bullet
- leap tall buildings in a single bound
- lift vehicles with very little effort and
- blow cold air (useful in freezing foods in the event of a freezer malfunction)

You will see that I've attended the Hero/Heroine School of Excellence and scored extremely well in all areas of study.

I look forward to hearing from you. I can be reached at 123-4567 at anytime. Please don't worry about time zones or quiet hours as I don't need sleep.

Please note my reference. He's available day and night as well.
