Assignment 2.4.1   Hardware and Software

1. What sort of computer hardware would you like to try out, and why? Answer in a few sentences. Don't forget that computer hardware could be anything from a desktop computer, to a smart phone, to a robot, to a self-driving car.

2. Do you have an idea for a great software application that you would like to develop? If so, please describe your idea in a few sentences.

    OR: What software would you like to try out, and why? This could be anything from a good word processing system to virtual reality. Answer in a few sentences.